The Lawmakers took the "Truckers" into camp yesterday in a game which was devoid of any special features. It was practically won in the first inning on three hits, a base on balls and an error by Breanan. Although the Truckers outbatted the local team, their nine hits were scattered, while three of Richmond's seven hits came in one inning. This is the story of the game in a nutshell: Breanan, the first man up, was walked by McKenzie; Billet, the next man up, flew out to Heffron, but Griffin solved "Hoot Mon's" delivery successfully, for a long one to deep center and when the dust had cleared away the Trucker captain was standing on the third sack, and Breanan had scored. Griffin attempted to come home on Schrader's grounder to Sandherr, but "Sandy" caught him by a quick throw to Cowan, and Schrader died in an attempt to purloin the middle bag. Richmond scored three runs in the first on a base on balls and singles by Lipe, Kanzler and Sandherr, and an error by the Truckers' centre garden-keeper.

In her half of the third Portsmouth got another score on an infield single by Billet and Wadleigh's two-sacker. Richmond's last run came in the fifth on a hit by Heffron, Griffin's error and Lipe's single. Portsmouth scored her final run in the eighth on singles by Griffin and Guilheun. The play of Guilheun's, when he pulled down Kanzler's liner with one hand, deserves mention, as also the catch by Sandherr of Guilheun's fly back of short. The score:

GOING TO DANVILLE

Next Monday morning a special limited train over the Southern will carry more than 500 of the loyal legion of Richmond fans to the City on the Dan. The train leaves the Fourteenth Street station at 9:30 A. M., and returning leaves Danville at 8:30 P. M. There will be a special coach for ladies and refreshments will be served on the train.

Owing to the close race between the Lawmakers and Tobaccoists, the double-header which will be pulled off Monday will be of great interest, and the teams may swap places as a result of the game. When the Richmond aggregation of rooters land in Danville they will put up an exhibition of rooting which will wake the echoes of the hills around the muddy Dan, and if the Lawmakers and Bugs continue to put up the great article of baseball they are now giving the public, there will be noise a-plenty and much cause for it.

Clement Wins.
CISMONT, Va., July 24.—Clement defeated the fast team of Campbell on the home grounds before a large crowd of rooters. Campbell being well represented. The feature of the game was the fast double play by Hicks, Crawford and Jones.
Score by innings: R. Campbell 00000000—5
Clement 00000000—14
Batteries: Walker and Walker; Lovins, Crawford and Grissinger.

Divide Double-Header.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROXBORO, N. C., July 24.—Roxboro and South Boston divided a double-header. The first was a comedy of errors, and was won by the Virginians. Score: South Boston, 11; Roxboro, 10.
The last was a good game, the Tarheels winning by the score of 6 to 1.

SCOOPING UP A GROUNDER

NELSON SANDHERR.

Richmond's fast shortstop, has the habit of nailing 'em at first in a way that has killed the hopes of opposing teams in many a game.

KANZLER AGAIN IN LEAD

By polling more than 7,000 votes, "Smiling Dutch" Revella. He is the Kanzer again takes the lead in the contest for the most popular player in the league. The race between Kanzler and Doyle is nearly as hard fought and exciting as the pennant race in which their respective teams are having such a beautiful fight.

Except for the change at the top of the list, where Kanzler and Doyle swap places, the position of the other players remains unchanged. Lipe pulled a big jump yesterday, and if his poll continues as heavy as it has during the past week he promises to be a dangerous rival for first honors. A few letters follow:

Baseball Editor:
I have enclosed thirty-seven votes for Frank Doyle, the greatest second baseman in the Virginia League.

MUD RUNNERS NECK AND NECK

BRIGHTON BEACH, N. Y., July 24.—Mud runners had an inning at Brighton Beach to-day, but, nevertheless, the finishes were close and exciting. Fashion Plate and Corbellino, in the third race, came to the finish on almost even terms, and many thought Corbellino had won, but the judges gave Fashion Plate the decision. Summaries:

First race—selling, six furlongs—Sardinesca (1 to 2) first, Astor D'Or (out, place), second, Loudoun Light (out, show) third. Time, 1:14.
Second race—selling, one mile and a sixteenth—Arnee (1 to 4) first, George G. Hall (9 to 10, place), second, Coma (1 to 1, show) third. Time, 1:47.
Third race—handicap for two-year-olds and yearlings—Fashion Plate (even) first, Torbellino (1 to 2, place), second, Dander (even, show) third. Time, 1:13 1-5.
Fourth race—handicap for three-year-olds and up, mile and a sixteenth—Far West (5 to 2) first, Lally V. (6 to 1, place), second, Quaker Mark (4 to 1, show) third. Time, 1:36 1-5.
Fifth race—maiden, selling, five furlongs—Westmore (3 to 1) first, Dr. Elliot (even, place), second, O. L. Kid (8 to 5, show) third. Time, 1:01 3-5.
Sixth race—selling, three-year-olds, one mile and a sixteenth—Monoda (4 to 1) first, Chuck Shot (even, place), second, Obert (even, show) third. Time, 1:47 1-5.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 24.—Savannah defeated Charleston to-day by the score of 2 to 1. The features of the game were the pitching of Kleber and Clancy, there being but six hits made by both sides.
Score by innings: R. H. E.
Savannah 00100100—2 2 1
Charleston 00000000—0 4 1
Batteries: Kleber and Moran; Clancy and Durkin. Time, 1:58. Umpire, Latham.

WILMINGTON, N. C., July 24.—Wilmington won the second game of the series from Wilson here to-day. The game was fast and snappy, and both teams felled perfectly. Busey, for the locals, allowed but two hits.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Wilson 00000000—0 2 0
Wilmington 00000100—1 5 0
Batteries: Thompson and Holt; Busey and Kitz.

AMERICAN WINS MARATHON RACE

him from the finish, and three times after the doctors had poured stimulants down his throat he was dragged to his feet and finally was pushed across the line. His part in the race for all practical purpose was ended when he entered the stadium, for unless he had received assistance he could not have finished.

While this pathetic scene was being enacted, the American, Hayes, entered the stadium comparatively fresh and trotted around. He came in less than a minute behind Dorando, but in the excitement of the moment failed to get even from his own countrymen, the reception he deserved.

Happiness returned to the American camp to-night and the officials, athletes and everybody in any way connected with the team are celebrating the great victory won by Hayes in the Marathon race. They have forgotten all the troubles of the past two weeks in this moment of triumph.

"Wasn't it great?" said Manager Halpin, who continued: "We not only won the big race of the Olympic games, but also got third and fourth places, and what is more, our Indian beat the much-lauded Canadian Indian, Longboat. Well, we can forget what has gone before, although we will always feel that we have been unfairly treated."

Hayes Not Done Up.

Hayes, who carried off the race for America, naturally was very tired to-night, but he gave no signs of any ill effects from his long run. Hayes ran a careful race. He was satisfied to go along slowly until he had covered nineteen miles, and then pushed into the third place, keeping behind Heffron until his opportunity came on the long climb up the hill.

When Dorando, Heffron and Hayes reached the Scrubs, Dorando was 1 1/2 minutes ahead of Heffron, who, in turn, was 2 1/2 minutes ahead of Hayes. Both the Italian and the South African were limping badly, while Hayes was comparatively fresh and still strong.

When the American reached the level of the Scrubs through which the runners made their way along country paths, he could see the two leaders only a short distance ahead of him, and he felt certain from their gait that they were about run out.

Hayes, however, that he was not in the best of condition, and there was some talk of not starting, but he thought he could get through.

The other events in the stadium were tame as compared with the Marathon race to-day. In the pole vault, the American team, in the pole vault, A. C. Gilbert of Yale, and E. T. Cooke, of Cornell, tied for first place, with 13 feet 2 inches, and the gold and silver medals go to America, while C. S. Jacobs, University of Chicago, tied with Soderstrom, of Sweden, and Archibald, of Canada, for third, with a vault of 11 feet 9 inches.

America also captured all the heats in the 100-metre hurdle race, insuring all the places in the final of that event, which will be run to-morrow. The Americans also won their heat in the 1,600-metre relay race.

Hayes, the winner of the Marathon race to-day, in twenty-one years old and is employed in a New York department store. He is not new to long distance racing, having won the 25-mile Marathon race in Boston last year. In that contest, as to-day, he ran a strong race from start to finish, and was in good condition at the end of the long journey. He is a member of the Irish-American Athletic Club.

Hayes' Speed for Last.
In an interview to-night, said: "I took nothing to eat or drink on the journey. I think to do so is a great mistake. Before starting I partook of a light lunch, consisting of two pieces of beef, two slices of toast and a cup of tea. During the race I merely bathed my face with Florida water and gargled my throat with brandy. "I ran my own race throughout, covering in almost mechanical fashion the first five or six miles at a rate of six minutes per mile. After that I went as hard as I could to the finish. Ten miles from home I was ten minutes behind the leader, and then I began to go through the field. I passed Heffron on hearing the stadium, but saw nothing of Dorando until I entered the arena. I do not smoke, and only drink in moderation."

Believes He Could Have Won.
Dorando, who was almost too weak to answer questions when seen to-night, said:

"I felt all right until I entered the stadium. When I heard the people cheering and knew I had nearly won a thrill passed through me, and I felt my strength going. I fell down, but tried to struggle to the tape, but fell again. "I never lost consciousness of what was going on, and if the doctor had not ordered the attendants to pick me up I believe I could have finished unaided."

WALKING TO RICHMOND

Aubrey L. Owen, a sturdy athlete of the local Y. M. C. A., who was one of the leaders of the association camp at Monticello, near Charlottesville, Va., is returning from that place to Richmond by foot. Owen has made a reputation as a long distance walker, having taken several jaunts about to Petersburg, Ashland and other places some distance from Richmond.

Owen is at present at Lassiter, Va., and intends to make the trip from there to Richmond on one day. The following communication has been received from him by Mr. W. Y. Rethel, physical director of the Y. M. C. A.:

Dear Mr. Rethel: After seeing you at Shadwell Tuesday afternoon, I left immediately for Zion, ten miles from Richmond, and stayed at the home of Mr. M. M. I was caught in a rain and thoroughly drenched just before reaching this place, but a hot bath and a good night's sleep have cured all ill effects of the cold rain.

I left East Lake Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock, and reached the city at 1:30 P. M. I walked a distance of 4:30 P. M. same day.

At each place where I stopped I had nice accommodations, and I feel no ill effects of the long walk. I will leave for Richmond in a day or two, and by making an early start, I can reach the city in time to call by the association and see you.

Sincerely yours,
AUBREY L. OWEN.
Lassiter, Va., July 24, 1908.

PETERSBURG WINS.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

PETERSBURG, Va., July 24.—Petersburg batted hard and played all around Henderson in this afternoon's game, winning by a score of 7 to 4. Fitzpatrick, the home team, had the visitors at his mercy, and barring one inning, his support was all that he could have wished for. Eakin, who hit hard, two clean home run hits, two-base hits and eight singles being made off his delivery by Petersburg.

The game about in phenomenal and sensational fielding, catches by Eanes and Parrish being the most brilliant seen on the diamond in this city this year, while the work of Langston, Henderson's centre fielder, was great. Sheppard, of Petersburg, carried off the batting honors, making a double and three homers, a hit for each time he came to bat.

The last game of the series will be played to-morrow, and as each team has won a game, hard fought battle will be contested on the diamond for the championship.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Petersburg 000021010—4 5 2
Henderson 000220—13 4
Batteries: Fitzpatrick and Churn; Eakin and Stewart. Umpire, Wells.

MR. GRIFFITH LEAVES

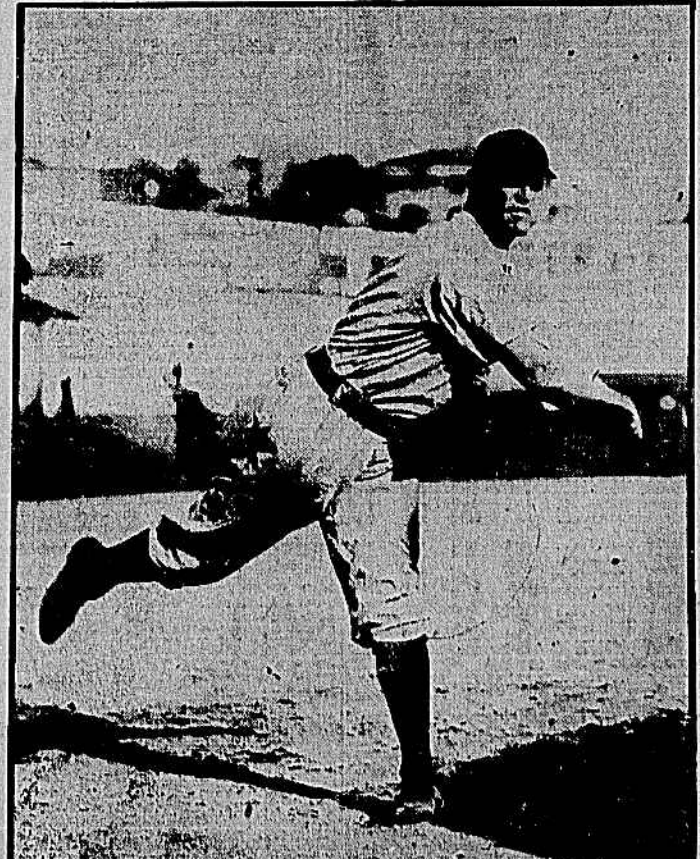

Will Engage in Magazine Work in Oklahoma City.

Mr. Emerson J. Griffith, sporting editor of The Times-Dispatch, has resigned his position here Monday night for Oklahoma City to engage in magazine work with Mr. R. R. Reynolds, of Asheville, N. C.

The people of the Western State are progressive. They believed that a magazine will be of great help in exploiting the resources of the new Commonwealth, and Messrs. Reynolds and Griffith are assured of substantial support from the citizens.

Mr. Griffith's new position is a distinct advance in his profession. He will leave for Oklahoma City on Monday.
